LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY

PRIVATE BILLS

EXCERPT FROM STANDING ORDERS RELATING TO PRIVATE BILLS

100. (1) All applications to the Legislative Assembly for Private Bills of any nature whatsoever shall require the publication of a notice clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application, and when the application refers to any proposed work, indicating sufficiently the location of the work, to be signed by or on behalf of the applicant.

(2) Such notice shall be published in The British Columbia Gazette and once a week in one leading daily newspaper freely circulating in all parts of the Province. The notice in such newspaper to appear on Wednesday of each week.

(3) When the proposed Bill is of such a nature that it may particularly affect one or more electoral districts, the notice shall furthermore be published once a week if possible in some newspaper in every electoral district affected, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then in a newspaper published in the electoral district nearest thereto.

(4) The publication of such notice shall in all cases be continued for a period of four weeks during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the petition.

97. No petition for any Private Bill shall be received by the House after the first ten days of each Session, nor may any Private Bill be presented to the House after the first three weeks of each Session, nor may any report of any Standing or Select Committee upon a Private Bill be received after the first four weeks of each Session, and no motion for the suspension or modification of this Standing Order shall be entertained by the House until the same has been reported on by the Committee on Standing Orders, or after reference made thereof at a previous sitting of the House to the Standing Committees charged with the consideration of Private Bills, who shall report thereon to the House. And if this rule shall be suspended or modified as aforesaid, the promoters of any Private Bill which is presented after the time hereinbefore limited, or for which the petition has been received after the time hereinbefore limited, shall in either case pay double the fees required in respect of such Bill by this rule, unless the House shall order to the contrary.

98. (1) Any person seeking to obtain any Private Bill shall deposit with the Clerk of the House, eight clear days before the opening of the Session:—

(a) A printed copy of such Bill;

(b) A copy of the petition to be presented to the House;

(c) Copies of the notices published, with publication proved by a statutory declaration or affidavit to the satisfaction of the Clerk of the House.

(2) At the time of depositing the Bill and petition the applicant shall also pay to the Clerk of the House the sum of three hundred dollars.

(3) If a copy of the Bill, petition, and notices proved as aforesaid shall not have been so deposited in the hands of the Clerk of the House at least eight clear days before the opening of the Session or if the petition has not been presented to the House within the first ten days of the Session, the amount to be paid to the Clerk shall be six hundred dollars. If the Bill shall not pass second reading one-half of the fees shall be returned.

101. Every petition signed by an agent or attorney in fact shall be accompanied by the authority of such agent or attorney in fact, and the petition shall not be deemed to be filed with the Clerk until this is done.

102. Before any petition praying for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a toll-bridge is received by the House, the person or persons intending to petition for such Bill shall, upon giving the notice prescribed by Standing Order 100, also at the same time and in the same manner give notice of the rates which they intend to ask, the extent of the privilege, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts or vessels, and mentioning also whether they intend to erect a drawbridge or not, and the dimensions of the same.

103. (1) All Private Bills for Acts of incorporation shall be so framed as to incorporate by reference to the clauses of the general Acts relating to the details to be provided for by such Bills: Special grounds shall be established for any proposed departure from this principle, or for the introduction of other provisions as to such details, and a note shall be appended to the Bill indicating the provisions thereof in which the general Act is proposed to be departed from. Bills which are not framed in accordance with this Standing Order shall be recast by the promoters and reprinted at their expense before any Committee passes upon the clauses.

(2) Every Bill for an Act of incorporation, where a form of model Bill has been adopted, shall be drawn in accordance with the model Bill (copies of model Bills may be obtained from the Clerk of the House). Any provisions contained in any such Bill which are not in accord with the model Bill shall be inserted between brackets or underlined, and shall be so printed.

(3) Any exceptional provisions that it may be proposed to insert in any Bill shall be clearly specified in the notice of application for same.

107. All Private Bills shall be prepared by the parties applying for the same, and printed in small-pica type, twenty-six ems by fifty ems, on good paper, in imperial octavo form, each page when folded measuring 10¾ inches by 7½ inches. There shall be a marginal number every fifth line of each page; the numbering of the lines is not to run on through the Bill, but the lines of each page are to be numbered separately. Three hundred copies of each Bill shall be deposited with the Clerk of the House immediately before the first reading. If amendments are made to any Bill during its progress before the Committee on Private Bills, or through the House, such Bill shall be reprinted by the promoters thereof.

In the case of Bills to incorporate companies, in addition to the fee of $300 mentioned in Rule 98, fees calculated on the capital of the company are payable at the same time. Further particulars can be had on application to the undersigned.

All cheques in payment of fees must be certified.

Dated January 5th, 1949.

E. K. DEBECK,
Clerk, Legislative Assembly.

CERTIFICATES OF INCORPORATION

CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION

"CO-OPERATIVE ASSOCIATIONS ACT"

CANADA:

PROVINCE OF BRITISH COLUMBIA.

No. 712.

I HEREBY CERTIFY that "British Columbia Co-operative Union" has this day been incorporated as an Association under the "Co-operative Associations Act" and that the denomination of its shares is five dollars each.

The registered office of the Association will be situate at 2790 Telford Avenue, South Burnaby, in the Province of British Columbia.

Given under my hand and seal of office at Victoria, Province of British Columbia, this nineteenth day of March, one thousand nine hundred and fifty-six.

[L.S.]

A. H. HALL,
Deputy Registrar of Companies.

The objects of the Association are:—

(a) To stimulate active interest in the co-operative movement and a knowledge of co-operative principles and practice, both as a way of doing business and as a way of living and working together:

(b) To assist, advise, and encourage the establishment of co-operative enterprises, credit unions, and co-operative community services on a non-profit basis:

(c) To provide educational material and facilities for the stimulation of wider participation in the co-operative movement and the strengthening of co-operative democracy within the movement:

(d) To buy, sell, publish, circulate, with or without charge, any newspaper or other publication likely to be conducive to the objects of this Union, and to join with any person, firm, association, or corporate body in the printing, publication, and circulation of any such newspaper or publication, and to sell advertising space therein:

(e) To provide existing co-operative associations with practical business aid and information, and to cultivate and make available to member or affiliated associations specialized co-operative services:

(f) To protect and promote the interests of the co-operative movement by such action as may be deemed required whenever they are affected by Governmental legislation, regulation, or administration, or otherwise, and to work for the establishment and improvement of co-operative legislation and supervision and the administration thereof, in the interests of the co-operative movement as a whole, and, when not inconsistent with such interests, the interests of any section of the movement:

(g) Whenever it appears to be in the interests of the co-operative movement as a whole to give assistance to any member or affiliate association to protect its interests or enforce its rights:

(h) To foster harmony amongst various co-operative associations, credit unions, and co-operative community services, and whenever possible to co-ordinate their activities, and avoid overlapping, upon just and equitable terms, for their mutual advantage and for the advantage of the co-operative movement as a whole, and to encourage uniformity in co-operative practices:

(i) To recognize by affiliation with or membership in this Association, or otherwise, all bona fide co-operative associations for the protection of such associations and the public from spurious associations not operating on truly co-operative principles:

(j) To promote the social, economic, physical, and cultural well-being of the people of Canada generally and the Province of British Columbia particularly:

(k) To raise funds if considered necessary, in addition to membership or affiliation fees or contributions, for any specific project likely to benefit the co-operative movement in any part of Canada, directly or indirectly, and to expend such funds for such purposes:

(l) To become a member or an affiliate of the Co-operative Union of Canada and to subscribe to and be bound by its rules and by-laws from time to time in effect, and to pay dues thereto out of the funds of the Association:

(m) To affiliate with, join, or become a member of any association or corporate body with objects similar, in whole or in part, to the objects of this Association, or in which membership would benefit this Association, directly or indirectly:

(n) For all or any of the purposes aforesaid to expend moneys, and to make contributions and donations:

(o) To become the successor to an unincorporated association of corporate bodies known by the same name.

DEPARTMENT OF LABOUR

PROVINCE OF BRITISH COLUMBIA

MALE AND FEMALE MINIMUM WAGE ORDER No. 28 (1956)

ORDER ESTABLISHING A MINIMUM WAGE IN THE PIPE-LINE CONSTRUCTION INDUSTRY

PURSUANT to the provisions of the "Male Minimum Wage Act" and the "Female Minimum Wage Act," the Board of Industrial Relations hereby orders:—

Interpretation.

1. That for the purposes of this Order "pipe-line construction industry" means all operations in or incidental to the construction of any line of pipe used for transmitting or transporting gas, oil, or petroleum, as well as the preparation for or laying the foundations of any such construction, but does not include the installation of mains and service-lines in, to, or from industrial plants or other buildings.

Application of Order.

2. That this Order shall, notwithstanding any other Order of the Board, apply to every employer and every employee in the pipe-line construction industry, except an employee holding a position of supervision or management, so long as the duties performed by him are entirely of a supervisory or managerial character and do not comprise any work or duty customarily performed by other employees. The Board may determine whether or not the position held by any person or the capacity in which he is employed is such as to bring him within the scope of this exception.

Minimum wage.

3. That the minimum wage for employees in the pipe-line construction industry shall be as provided in clauses (1), (2), (3), and (4) of this section.

(1) All employees, except as provided in clause (2), $1 per hour.

(2) Employees classified under section 7 of the "Male Minimum Wage Act" or section 6 of the "Female Minimum Wage Act" for whose employment permits in writing have been issued by the Board: The wage or rate of pay prescribed in the permit.

Multiple rates.

(3) (i) Time and one-half the employee's regular rate of pay for all hours worked in excess of 8 in the day.

(ii) Time and one-half the employee's regular rate of pay for all hours worked in excess of 40 in the week where the hours worked do not exceed 8 in any one day.

Daily guarantee.

(4) An employee reporting for work on the call of an employer: The employee's regular rate of pay for the entire period spent at the place of work in response to the call, with a minimum in any one day of:—

(a) Two hours' pay at the employee's regular rate, except where the employee's condition is such that he is not competent to perform his duties, or he has failed to comply with the Accident-prevention Regulations of the Workmen's Compensation Board; and

(b) If the employee commences work, 4 hours' pay at the employee's regular rate, except where his work is suspended because of inclement weather or other reasons completely beyond the control of the employer.

Payment of wages.

4. That every employer shall, at least as often as semi-monthly, pay to each of his employees all wages and salary earned by the employee up to a day not more than 8 days prior to the date of payment.

Order to be posted.

5. That every employer shall post a copy of this Order, and keep it posted, in a conspicuous place in his establishment or other suitable place, so that all employees affected thereby may have ready access to and see the same.

Records to be kept.

6. (1) That every employer shall keep in his establishment a true and correct record in the English language of the wages paid to and the hours worked each day by each of his employees, together with a register in the English language of the names, ages, occupations, and residential addresses of his employees.

Records to be produced.

(2) That every employer shall, on demand of the Board or any person authorized in writing by the Board or by the Chairman of the Board, produce for inspection all records kept by him relating to the wages, hours of labour, or conditions of labour and employment of any or all of his employees.

Order effective.

7. That this Order, made by the Board at Vancouver, B.C., on the 20th day of March, 1956, shall take effect on the 2nd day of April, 1956.
